Windsor, March 25.

This Day the Right Honourable Lord North, Chancellor of the University of Oxford, the Earl of Dartmouth, High Steward, the Rev. Dr. Cooke, Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Chapman, President of Trinity College, Dr. Ford, Principal of Magdalen Hall, Dr. Williams, Fellow of Corpus Christi College, Mr. Whitby, Senior Proctor, Mr. Moulding, Junior Proctor, Mr. Demainbray, Fellow of Exeter College, and Mr. Trollope, Fellow of Wadham College, waited on Their Majesties with the following Addresses, being introduced to the Queen by the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, humbly intreat your favourable Acceptance of our fervent Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

In this Hour of general Joy we approach you, Sire, with the most heart-felt Gratitude to the Almighty, for the Mercy which he has vouchsafed to us in your Preservation, and with the strongest Sentiments of Love and Veneration for your Royal Person.

To the Sincerity of these Professions the Moments of our Sorrow bore ample Testimony, when we deplored, before the Throne of God, that severe and awful Visitation with which it had pleased Him to afflict you; and when the same Language of Love, Duty and Affection was mingled with our Prayers and Intercessions.

Duly sensible of those Virtues which so eminently distinguish your Majesty, and which (under God) have ensured to us the inestimable Blessings we enjoy, we can never sufficiently acknowledge your unwearied Attention to the Prosperity and Interests of your Subjects, your mild and legal Exercise of the Authority which is vested in you, and your tender and zealous Protection of our Civil and Religious Liberties.

We most heartily commend your Majesty to the continued Protection of that Great Being, whose merciful Interposition we now adore; humbly beseeching Him to grant you a long and prosperous Reign over a grateful and affectionate People.

Given at our House of Convocation, the 23d Day of March, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Receive with great Satisfaction this loyal and affectionate Address from the University of Oxford, which may always depend upon My Protection. I need hardly express to you my Solicitude for the Advancement of sound Learning and Science, the best Foundations of our excellent Religion, as well as of our Civil Constitution. I shall only recommend to you a Continuance of your Attention to the Education and Morals of the Youth committed to your Care.

They were all very graciously received, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY it please your Majesty graciously to receive the cordial Congratulations of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, on the King's happy Recovery from His late Indisposition.

Amidst the general Consternation at that Period, it was with the deepest Sense of Gratitude and Affection that we observed your Majesty's anxious Concern for the Sufferings of your Royal Consort, and the consequent Distresses of His People; and we ceased not to implore the extraordinary Assistances of God's Grace to support you under so great a Trial.

It has pleased the Almighty to accept the Prayers of an afflicted Nation; and, by raising the King from a Bed of Sickness, to promise us a Continuance of the Happiness we enjoy under His mild and auspicious Government.

Your Majesty's many amiable Qualities justly challenge our admiration and Regard; and we shall incessantly offer up our Petitions to the Almighty, that He would be pleased to continue His Blessings to you, as the Reward of those distinguished Virtues by which you add Lustre to the British Throne.

Given at our House of Convocation, the 23d Day of March, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Should do little Justice to the Sentiments of My Heart, if I did not express, in the strongest Manner, My Thanks for Congratulations so full of Duty to the King, and Attention to Me; and though My Sufferings have been great, they are amply repaid by the univerſal Joy on the preſent happy Occaſion.

They were all very graciouſly received, and had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Windſor, March 25

The following Addreſſes have been preſented to Their Majeſties by the Dean and Canons of Windſor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Canons of your Free Collegiate Chapel of St. George, aſſembled in Chapter, humbly preſume to offer our ſincere Congratulations on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health.

Amidſt the unfeigned Concern expreſſed during the late gloomy Interval, by the whole Body of a People, grateful for the Bleſſings which they had long enjoyed under your Majeſty's benign Government, our Society had additional Cauſe of Sorrow.

Eſtabliſhed within the Walls of this Royal Reſidence, we had peculiar Opportunities of ſeeing and admiring that bright Aſſemblage of private Virtues which reflect dignified Luſtre on the Splendour of a Crown.

We have for many Years experienced your Majeſty's gracious Acceptance of our beſt Endeavours, in a due Performance of the ſacred Offices intruſted to us; by a regular and devout Attendance upon which, we daily ſaw the Monarch of a great Nation animating His Subjects to imitate His pious Example, in diſcharging their bounden Duty to the King of Kings.

Nor can we ever be forgetful of the numerous magnificent Improvements which Royal Liberality, combined with elegant Taſte, has directed to be carried into Execution within the Chapel appropriated to that Illuſtrious Order, upon whoſe Religious Exerciſes our Body is appointed to attend—Improvements which will juſtly intitle the preſent Sovereign to a diſtinguiſhed Place amongſt it's Founders and Benefactors.

Deeply impreſſed with theſe Perſonal Conſiderations, that operate powerfully to invigorate the Senſe of Public Obligations, which we feel in common with all our Fellow Subjects; emboldened, farther, by a well-grounded Reliance on that amiable Affability and engaging Condeſcenſion which ſo eminently adorn your Majeſty's Character, we are ſtrongly impelled, on this joyful Occaſion, to lay at the Foot of the Throne the warm Effuſions of our Hearts, and our reverential and devout Wiſhes, that the Father of Mercies, who has bleſſed the Means of your Recovery, and reſtored you to our Prayers, would vouchſafe to preſerve your Majeſty in an uninterrupted State of Health, that you may long continue the munificent Patron of Science and of the liberal Arts, the Guardian of Civil Liberty, the exemplary Friend of Religion, and the glorious Inſtrument of Providence in diffuſing Happineſs through the Extent of the Britiſh Empire.

Sealed in our Chapter Room, this 21ſt Day of March, 1789.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

YOUR dutiful and affectionate Congratulations on My Recovery from My late ſevere Indiſpoſition is the more pleaſing to Me, as it gives Me a freſh Occaſion of aſſuring you of My firm Attachment to the Church of England, which, the more I examine, the more I am convinced of the Purity of its Doctrines, and of its being moſt congenial to our excellent Civil Conſtitution.

To Her Gracious Majeſty the QUEEN.

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept the dutiful Congratulations of the Dean and Canons of Windſor, on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of the Health of our moſt Gracious Sovereign; an Event highly intereſting to the Kingdom in general, and the peculiar Source of the moſt exalted and unallayed Satisfaction to His Royal Conſort, to whom He is endeared by the tendereſt Ties of Conjugal Affection.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that it ſhall never ceaſe to be the Subject of our fervent Petitions to the Supreme Governor of the World, who has ſo providentially turned your Sorrow into Joy, that you may be long preſerved, to be a Pattern to the Great, the Protectreſs of the Good, the Refuge of the Indigent, and to ſoften the unwearied Labours of our Patriotic King for the Public Welfare, by the Exerciſe of every amiable Virtue, that can ſecure and promote His Domeſtic Felicity.

Sealed in our Chapter Room, this Twenty-firſt Day of March, 1789.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I Should not do Juſtice to the Sentiments of My Heart, did I not return the ſincereſt Thanks for Congratulations ſo full of Duty to the King, and ſo affectionate to Me, from ſo reſpectable a Branch of the Church of England.

Windſor, March 25.

This Day the following Addreſs was preſented to the King, and read by Mr. David Barclay, accompanied by Mr. Thomas Corbyn and Mr. Jacob Hagen.

To GEORGE the THIRD, King of Great Britain, and the Dominions thereunto belonging,

The humble Addreſs of His Proteſtant Subjects, the People called Quakers.

May it pleaſe the King,

THE general Satisfaction, which has been diffuſed among Thy People by the ſignal Reſtoration of Thy Health, has, we believe, been felt by none with more Thankfulneſs to the Author of all our Mercies than by us, Thy dutiful and affectionate Subjects, though our ReligiousPrinciples lead us to avoid Illuminations, and ſuch public Demonſtrations of Joy.

May the Almighty ſanctify this happy Event to Thee, to Thy amiable Conſort our excellent Queen, to all the Royal Family, and to Thy People; mayſt Thou be an Inſtrument in the Divine Hand for the Promotion of univerſal Peace and Good-Will among Men, and finally receive the Crown of Life, which the Lord hath promiſed to them that love Him.

Signed in and on Behalf of our Meeting for Sufferings held in London, by Adjournment, the Seventeenth of the Third Month, 1789.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

YOUR repeated Expreſſions of Duty and Affection to My Perſon and Family are very agreeable to Me. They are particularly ſo on the preſent Occaſion of My Recovery, by the Mercy of God, from a dangerous Illneſs. You may depend upon the Continuance of My Protection.

Whitehall, March 28.

The following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant and Grand Jury of the County of Suſſex.

WE, the Lord Lieutenant and Grand Jury of the County of Suſſex, humbly beg Leave to take this earlieſt Opportunity to addreſs your Majeſty to expreſs expreſs our Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, and our Part of the General Joy and Thankfulneſs, which, on the Event of your Majeſty's happy Recovery, has animated the whole Empire.

We rejoice that your Majeſty has found, upon the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Health, the general Intereſts of the Nation unimpaired, through the Wiſdom of your Parliament, who have been able, during the Period of our Fears and Anxieties, to conduct the State in Safety.

Your Majeſty's perſonal Proſperity has been at all Times dear to your faithful Subjects, and the Object of their Prayers; but on this Occaſion we have ſeen and felt, with more than ordinary Anxiety, how intimately your Majeſty's immediate Welfare was blended with the Public Good; and, as our Apprehenſions for the Loſs of your Majeſty's Paternal Care of us increaſed, we became the more anxious for the Preſervation of that prudent, wiſe and unremitting Attention of your Majeſty to the Government of your People, to which they owe the Happineſs and Proſperity that have diſtinguiſhed the preſent Æra: We have accordingly found our Hearts warmed with a more lively Affection, and, if poſſible, with added Loyalty to your Majeſty; and we kneel with Thankfulneſs to that Almighty Being, who has been graciouſly pleaſed to reſtore you to your People, over whom it is our fervent Prayer, that your Majeſty may be long, very long, preſerved to extend the Bleſſings of your Reign.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Merchants, Bankers and Traders of London, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence to offer our humble and affectionate Congratulations upon the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, of the Importance of which your Subjects have been made peculiarly ſenſible, by the Severity of your Majeſty's late Indiſpoſition.

In your Recovery, Sire! we contemplate the Ceſſation of a Public Calamity; we behold Safety, Union and Peace; and our Joy is greatly augmented by reflecting on the Happineſs which your Royal Conſort and the Royal Family muſt feel on an Occaſion ſo highly intereſting.

Impreſſed with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude, we offer up our unfeigned Thanks to the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events for this ſignal Diſplay of His Mercy.

May your Majeſty long live in the full Enjoyment of Health and of the higheſt Degree of Domeſtic Felicity: The Guardian of our Civil and Religious Liberties, the Protector of our Commerce, and the Head of that Conſtitution which is the Admiration of ſurrounding Nations; the Glory of our own! And when, mature in Age, your Majeſty ſhall be called to the eternal Manſions of the Juſt, may the Honours of your Illuſtrious Houſe deſcend to the lateſt Poſterity, as invaluable Bleſſings to a free and grateful People.

[Delivered by Meſſ. Beachcroft, Thelluſon, Hankey, Everett, Sanſom, Angerſtein, and Brickwood.]

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middleſex, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty with our hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

It is with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude that we acknowledge the Bounty and Goodneſs of the Almighty Diſpoſer of human Events, in reſtoring your Majeſty to your faithful Subjects.

The Joy which has been ſo generally manifeſted has, in no Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, been more ſincerely felt than by your loyal and dutiful Subjects reſiding in the County of Middleſex, whoſe local Situation enables them, in a particular Manner, to feel and enjoy the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's paternal Care, and mild and juſt Government.

Permit us, Sire, to aſſure you, that we will, upon all Occaſions, be ready to teſtify our zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and to maintain and defend our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State.

Our ardent Prayers to Heaven are, that your Majeſty may continue to enjoy that Health which it hath pleaſed the Almighty to reſtore you to, and that you may long reign in Peace and Happineſs over a grateful and affectionate People.

For and in the Names of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middleſex, purſuant to a Reſolution made at a general Meeting held the 24th Day of March, 1789, at the Mermaid in Hackney.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and others of the County of Hertford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and others of the County of Hertford, beg Leave to teſtify to your Majeſty the anxious Concern for your Safety, which we felt in common with all our Fellow-Subjects, during your late Indiſpoſition; and we preſume humbly to entreat your Majeſty's Acceptance of our moſt unfeigned Congratulations on the happy Event of your Recovery.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sire!

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal City of Oxford, in Common Council aſſembled, embrace with unſpeakable Pleaſure the preſent happy Moment, and implore your Majeſty's Acceptance of our moſt ſincere and affectionate Congratulations on an Event, that has marked the peculiar Providence of Heaven, in reſtoring to us a Sovereign, whoſe uniform Syſtem of Government has been the Peace, the Happineſs and Proſperity of His Subjects.

Depreſſed and almoſt ſunk into Deſpair by the melancholy Tidings of our Monarch's Indiſpoſition, our Joys were limited only by the Extent of human Felicity, on hearing of His returning Health, in which were involved not only our own deareſt Intereſts, but, by a more intimate Relation, the Happineſs and Comfort of the beſt of Queens, whoſe eminently diſtinguiſhed Qualities juſtly demand from us, and all Mankind, the tendereſt Concern for Her Welfare.

May the Almighty, who has preſerved unto us a King, and given Him new Health and Vigor, continue to watch over Him with the choiceſt Gifts of Heaven; and whilſt we contemplate the paſt Effects of a mild and beneficent Reign, we look forward with Confidence and perfect Security to the firm Maintenance of all our Civil and Religious Rights.

Theſe, Great Sire, are not the Sentiments and Prayers of divided Citizens; numerous as we are, we differed not in heartily approving the Adminiſtration of Public Meaſures during your Indiſpoſition, and particularly of thoſe which more immediately tended to eſtabliſh, what we believed to be, the true Conſtitution of the State, and to ſecure your Majeſty's juſt Rights; and now with one Heart and one Voice, in Terms expreſſive of the utmoſt Loyalty, Duty, Zeal and Affection, which grateful Subjects can be inſpired with, we celebrate your Majeſty's Recovery, and Return to imperial Power, the ſure Prelude to Liberty, and every Bleſſing dear in the Eſtimation of Britons.

Given under the Common Seal of our City, the 20th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord, 1789, and in the 29th Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

HIGHLY favoured as this Nation is by Divine Providence, in the happy Reſtoration of your Majeſty's valuable Health, we your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, embrace the earlieſt Opportunity of joining in univerſal Gratitude and Thankſgiving to Heaven for the Diſpenſation of ſo diſtinguiſhed a Bleſſing to your affectionate People: And we moſt ardently implore the Almighty Goodneſs to continue to your Majeſty this ineſtimable Enjoyment, ſo eſſential a Security to the Happineſs of your Dominions; and that your Majeſty's Reign over them may be extended for a long Succeſſion of Years in uninterrupted Health, Peace and Proſperity.

Given under our Common Seal, this 26th Day of March, 1789.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Weſt India Planters and Merchants.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Weſt India Planters and Merchants, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Event of your Majeſty's Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

May the Almighty Power which hath reſtored your Majeſty to the Wiſhes and Prayers of your faithful People continue to watch over You, and perpetuate without Interruption to us and our Poſterity the Bleſſings we have hitherto enjoyed under the Government of your Majeſty and of your Illuſtrious Family.

We are powerfully excited to offer theſe Congratulations by the united Motives of Duty, Intereſt, Gratitude and Affection; and we ſhall not fail inceſſantly to offer our Prayers to Almighty God, that your Majeſty may long continue to diffuſe over a loyal and grateful People the invaluable Bleſſings of pure Religion and Civil Liberty.

We perſuade ourſelves, that your Majeſty will conſider the Exultation of your Subjects upon ſo auſpicious an Occaſion, as well as their Solicitude for the Preſervation of a Life ſo important to the Intereſts of theſe Kingdoms, as the ſureſt Teſtimony of their Veneration for thoſe public and private Virtues, which ſhed ſo bright a Luſtre upon your Majeſty's Crown and Perſon.

May the ſame Omnipotent Being, who has enabled your Majeſty again to exerciſe with your wonted Benignity thoſe Virtues which make a Nation proſperous and happy, long preſerve you to us; and when it ſhall pleaſe Him to put a Period to a Life ſo valuable to Mankind in general, and to your grateful and loving Subjects in particular, may this Nation be bleſſed with a Race of Princes from your Illuſtrious Houſe, to govern our Deſcendants by your great Example.

[Delivered by the Rev. Dr. Small, John Maxce, William Batterſby, and William Fry, Eſqrs. accompanied by the Lord Biſhop of Briſtol, and Matthew Brickdale and Henry Cruger, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lichfield and Coventry, moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

We have the Felicity to live in an Age, when the ſtrongeſt Profeſſions of Attachment are conveyed to the Throne, not with the reproachful Feelings of Adulation, but with that honeſt Confidence, which the ſtricteſt Truth, the moſt unſhaken Loyalty, and the moſt envied Freedom conſpire to produce.

The Good and the Virtuous, the Diligent and the Meritorious of every Rank and Station, and of every Religion, within your Majeſty's Dominions, look up to your Majeſty, as their gracious Protector, and their ſure Support. But we feel ourſelves peculiarly intereſted in your Majeſty's Welfare, whoſe Duty it is to inculcate that pure Chriſtian Faith, and thoſe excellent Principles of Morality which are abundantly cheriſhed in your Royal Breaſt; and which your Majeſty hath invariably recommended to your People with every Motive of Encouragement, but with none more forcibly, than the brighteſt and moſt animating Example.

We earneſtly pray that the Almighty Diſpoſer of human Events may be pleaſed to grant a long Extent to your Majeſty's Reign, for the immediate Advantage of us and of all our Fellow Subjects; and alſo by the lengthened Diſplay of a perfect Adminiſtration of the beſt Government, for the Benefit of our Poſterity and the Inſtruction of all Mankind.

[Delivered by the Lord Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Dean and Chapter, and other Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Glouceſter.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Dean and Chapter, and other Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Glouceſter, with Hearts full of Gratitude to the Almighty for your Majeſty's Preſervation, want Words to expreſs the Joy we feel in your Reſtoration to Health and Strength.

Signally honoured as we have been by your Majeſty's late Reſidence in our Neighbourhood, unattended with the Retinue of Royalty, and repoſing the Safety of your Perſon in the Love of your People; greatly favoured with witneſſing, at this Diſtance from the Metropolis, the Truth of what Fame had reported to us of the endearing Condeſcenſions and engaging Tenderneſſes of your Majeſty, your Queen and amiable Princeſſes—highly delighted with the Opportunities afforded us of obſerving with our own Eyes the Example ſet by your Majeſty and our moſt gracious Queen of conjugal Felicity and domeſtic Enjoyment; ſupremely gratified with tracing the Source of your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government in the Benignity of your Royal Diſpoſition, and ſtill warm with the Impreſſions which theſe Obſervations made on our Affections; we feel peculiar Satisfaction and inexpreſſible Joy in the Bleſſing which Heaven has vouchſafed us of your Majeſty's Reſtoration to our beloved Queen, the moſt amiable Princeſſes, and to your happy People.

We exult in the Pleaſure your Majeſty muſt feel on finding your Crown and Empire, through the Wiſdom of your Parliament, and the Protection of Heaven, preſerved in full Strength and Vigour.—That your Majeſty may long reign under the like Protection, a Comfort to yourſelf, and a Bleſſing to your Family and People, is the ſincere Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

May it pleaſe the Almighty to ſhower down His choiceſt Bleſſings on your Majeſty, and to preſerve your Majeſty's Life for many Years to reign over a happy and united People.

[Tranſmitted by P. P. Powney, Eſq; and the Earl of Mornington.]

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Jurats, Common Council, and Principal Inhabitants of HisMajeſty's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, in the County of Kent, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our moſt unfeigned Congratulations on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of Health to our beloved and gracious Sovereign, an Event ſo full of glad Tidings to this Nation, and of ſuch unſpeakable Comfort to yourſelf and all the Royal Family.

Deeply afflicted as we were at the heavy Calamity with which it pleaſed God to afflict this Country, it afforded us ſome Conſolation to obſerve the zealous Attachment of all Ranks of People to your Majeſty's Perſon.

With unfeigned Thankfulneſs and Gratitude we acknowledge the Goodneſs of Almighty God in reſtoring to the Supplications of an affectionate People, a Sovereign, whoſe firſt Wiſh, we are perſuaded, has always been their Happineſs; and that your Majeſty, with our moſt Gracious Sovereign, and your Royal Offſpring, may long enjoy the Bleſſings of Proſperity and Comfort, and reign in the Hearts of a free, united, and a grateful People, ſhall be the Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt devoted and moſt faithful Subjects.

[Delivered by Clement Taylor and Matthew Bloxam, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough; Thomas Argles, Eſq; Mayor, and George Burr, Eſq. Deputy Recorder.]

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and affectionate Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Bridport, in the County of Dorſet.

MADAM,

WE beg Leave to rejoice with your Majeſty and to expreſs our warmeſt Gratitude to Heaven, on Account of His Majeſty's compleat Recovery from the ſevere Indiſpoſition with which it had pleaſed the Almighty to afflict our Gracious Sovereign.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Gratitude for the Bleſſings of His Majeſty's Reign. The paternal Care for His people, conſpicuous in His Government, and exerted to promote their general Happineſs, made our Diſtreſs the more poignant during the Exiſtence of the Malady under which His Majeſty laboured, and the ſuſpenſion of His perſonal Exerciſe of the Royal Authority: And in the ſame Proportion do we feel and participate the general Joy diffuſed throughout the Empire upon the happy Occaſion of His Majeſty's Health being reſtored in Anſwer to the Prayers of His afflicted Subjects; whilſt we alſo rejoice at the ſtrong Proofs which have been given, during the melancholy Interval now paſt, that your Majeſties both reign in the Hearts of a free and affectionate People.

May both your Majeſties continue to enjoy, for a long ſucceſſion of Years, every domeſtic Comfort, and thoſe warm Affections, from all the Subjects of the Britiſh Empire, by which we are animated, at this joyful Moment, to expreſs our Attachment to the Perſons of your Majeſties, and to your Royal Houſe.

[Delivered by Charles Sturt, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, and Mr. Serjeant Watſon.]

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

THE Portreeve, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Swanſea, and its Vicinity, called upon by a Senſe of Gratitude to expreſs their humble Thanks to your Majeſty, no leſs for your tender and affectionate Attention to our beloved Sovereign during His late ſevere and diſtreſſing Illneſs, than for your wiſe and exemplary Conduct in ſo awful a Criſis towards the Nation in general, beg at the ſame Time to add their inadequate though ſincere Tribute of Joy to that which hath pervaded the whole Realm, on the Event of the Reſtoration of the King's Health; and to requeſt your Acceptance of their moſt warm and dutiful Congratulations on the Occaſion. Reflecting alſo on the Bleſſings this Kingdom hath received from your Majeſty's Connections with it, they cannot but offer up to Heaven their moſt ardent Prayers for your long Life; and are further in duty bound to be moſt earneſt in their Supplications, as it muſt contribute ſo eſſentially to the Happineſs of the beſt of Monarchs.
